‘ A playwright of world stature ’ —Mario Relich, Wasafiri Final Solutions is one of Mahesh Dattani’s most renowned and widely performed plays. Moving between the Partition of India and the present day, it explores issues of religious bigotry and communal violence. One night, after being chased by a murderous mob, two Muslim boys seek shelter in the home of a Hindu Gujarati family. The boys’ arrival unleashes a flood of bitter memories and deep-seated prejudices. And as the tension builds towards a powerful climax, the play becomes a timely reminder of the need for tolerance. ‘ At last we have a playwright who gives sixty million English-speaking Indians an identity ’ —Alyque Padamsee ‘ Powerful and disturbing ’ —The New York Times

Mahesh Dattani, b. 1958, Indian English playwright.

‘ A playwright of world stature ’ —Mario Relich, Wasafiri Tara and Chandan have always been close. They were, after all, born as conjoined twins. But a horrific revelation drives a wedge between the siblings, plunging Chandan into a cycle of guilt and blame from which he cannot escape. One of Mahesh Dattani’s most popular works, Tara was also one of the first Indian plays in English to highlight the dangers of gender discrimination, and the insidious ways in which it operates in our society. ‘ At last we have a playwright who gives sixty million English-speaking Indians an identity ’ —Alyque Padamsee ‘ Powerful and disturbing ’ —The New York Times

‘ A playwright of world stature ’ —Mario Relich, Wasafiri On a Muggy Night in Mumbai is the first contemporary Indian play to openly tackle gay themes of love, partnership, trust and betrayal. Kamlesh—young, gay and clinically depressed—invites his friends home ostensibly for an evening of camaraderie. However, with the arrival of his sister and her fianc é , a series of dramatic confrontations is set into motion, leading to startling revelations and unexpected catharsis. ‘ At last we have a playwright who gives sixty million English-speaking Indians an identity ’ —Alyque Padamsee ‘ Powerful and disturbing ’ —The New York Times

‘ A playwright of world stature ’ —Mario Relich, Wasafiri Framed by the age-old battle between traditional authority and youthful rebellion, Dance Like a Man pivots on the strained relationship between Jairaj Parekh and his wife Ratna, both ageing Bharatanatayam dancers. When their daughter arranges for them to meet the boy she wants to marry, the fissures in the elderly couple’s relationship come to the fore. As old wounds are torn open again, both Jairaj and Ratna find that they must come to terms with their bitter past. The play was later adapted into a National Award-winning film. ‘ At last we have a playwright who gives sixty million English-speaking Indians an identity ’ —Alyque Padamsee ‘ Powerful and disturbing ’ —The New York Times

Brief Candle: Three Plays brings together the most recent work of Sahitya Akademi award-winner Mahesh Dattani as he continues to explore subjects that need to be addressed but are relentlessly brushed under the carpet of middle-class morality—incest; gender bias and death. The title play is set in a hospital ward where terminally ill patients put up an energetic farce in memory of their friend who died of cancer. The blurring of lines between their romp and the events of their own lives leads to revelations that are both tragic and life-affirming. In the radio play The Girl Who Touched the Stars; Bhavna—now an astronaut ready to take off on a mission into outer space—reflects on her past in this moment of glory; only to confront the bitter truths she has tried to ignore all her life. The fragile fabric of familial relations is ripped apart in Thirty Days in September when memories of a traumatic past return to haunt a mother and her daughter. Playful and poignant; devastating and redemptive; these critically acclaimed plays lay bare the far-reaching consequences of the choices we make; confirming Dattani as one of India ’ s foremost dramatists.
