If you could have a conversation with God Himself, what would He say? Would He be vicious, stripping you with His words, recounting your mistakes? Perhaps you, like the author of this book, have spent much of your life expecting and avoiding a fear-hungry God who watches you hawkishly from the Other Side. Perhaps you, like the author of this book, have found yourself being chased - but not in the way you most feared. From her real and intense encounters with a God who proved Himself mysterious, sacrificial, humorous, and meticulously kind comes this collection of stark and honest Christian poetry from Carisa Downs. On every page of this fully illustrated book, you will have the opportunity to "be found" by a God who may be softer than any of us know.
