Are you an Accountaneur(r)?

Acces PDF Tax Accounting

Think different. Taking a cue from several research studies across different professions and industries that identify traits, strengths, talents, skills, values, and beliefs, we identify the most common attitudes and beliefs of successful accountants who can be deservedly called

as entrepreneurs in the true sense of the word. An

Accountaneur is an entrepreneur whom,
with considerable
initiative and risk,
organizes and
manages a business
that provides tax,
accounting, and
advisory services to solve problems for people, for profit, or, a job. Those who work for themselves, i.e. who create a job for themselves. And those who create jobs for others. An Accountaneur(r) either works for him or herself or is the one who creates jobs for others in the tax and accounting profession. Are you an Accountaneur(r)?

Acces PDF Tax Accounting

If you work for yourself or if you have created jobs for others in the tax and accounting profession, you are an entrepreneur, rather than an Accountaneur. You are an Accountaneur if you chose not to take up a job, but chose instead to create a business. More at <http://cpatrendlines.com/a>
