Good morning. I thank you and Droid Usrr for very useful information provided. Both of you are correct, water repellent is very different than water resistant. The Motorola Droid Razr Maxx can certainly still get water damage if exposed to water. If the device has water damage, it would not be covered under the manufactures warranty.

Pemerintah Bayangan & Big Brother merupakan buku lanjutan dari The New World Order. Dalam praktiknya, NWO setidaknya membutuhkan Satu (tatanan) Ekonomi, Satu (sistem) Pemerintah & Pemerintahan serta Satu Agama (bersama). Buku kedua ini dimaksudkan untuk menjelaskan salah satu aspek "HOW" Satu (sistem) Pemerintah & Pemerintahan dijalankan. Bentuk awal dari One World Government ialah dengan memiliki, menciptakan dan menjalankan "Pemerintah & Pemerintahan bayangan" (Shadow Governments) di negara-negara yang dibutuhkan untuk mengendalikan dan menuntun "Pemerintah & Pemerintahan Resmi" baik melalui persetujuan atau penaklukan. Berbagai Shadow Government wajib bersifat totaliter dalam mengendalikan populasi/peduduk dunia. Totalitarianisme tersebut, setidaknya, dijalankan melalui "surveillance" secara global bagi setiap individu, kelompok, negara yang diinginkan. Satelit, telephone / cellphone, internet, CCTV, RFID, teknologi Biometrik merupakan piranti pengintai yang bekerja tanpa jeda, melacak posisi dan mengidentifikasi Anda dan saya. Salah satu manifestasi surveillance massal "Big Brother" dalam novel 1984-nya George Orwell dapat dilihat dari National Security Agency (NSA) Pemerintah bayangan di Amerika Serikat. Melalui buku ini, kita akan memahami bagaimana setiap individu yang diinginkan diawasi 24 jam sehari semalam dan mulai mengerti kenapa Pemerintah & Pemerintahan Resmi selalu menjadi pecundang. - Pustaka Al-Kautsar Publisher -

What happens when life takes a direction you don't expect? In this hybrid of self help and memoir, Darryle Pollack answers that question with humor, heart and hope. Her story will inspire and help others to find purpose and power in their own broken pieces; and proves that what breaks can bring the breakthrough. This is everything a satisfying memoir should be. It tells a very personal but universal story. The experiences are shared with honesty and insight. The prose is girl-friend casual and evocative at the same time. And, perhaps best of all, it is very funny. --- Suzanne Braun Levine, first editor of Ms. magazine, author of Inventing the Rest of Our Lives A funny and moving how-to, with wisdom all of us can use about putting our lives back together when all seems lost. ---Iris Rainer Dart, author of Beaches

Ceres 2525 is a spiritual sci-fi action novel about 25 year old Galactic military veteran Ceres Tauri. The playboy superstar of the zero-gravity league, Ceres searches for his parents, long held captive among the Galactic's 500 colony worlds. When he too is kidnapped by the pirate fleet, forced to duel to save a beautiful slave girl with a powerful secret, he determines to fight his way to the top of the pirate ranks. Can he kill his own father to rescue his mother? Who can save his soul, even from himself? Let me ask you: Do you read fiction? Why? You want to be teleported away from your normal real life, transported into an exotic fantasy world, having exciting adventures with your most interesting new friends you love and enemies you love to hate, right? What if we could pop up to a spacecraft right now? Where would you want to go? The Moon? Saturn? The asteroids? Who's up for that adventure right now? Raise your hand! Let's set course and fly out to the asteroid belt. Do you know the name of the largest asteroid up there? Ceres. (sounds like "series," as in "world series.") Let's imagine that's your home. You were born there, so of course, your mom named you after home: Ceres. A while back, your mom was kidnapped. They almost got you too, but you got away. Since then, your family put you up in a military school, not the brick institutional kind, though, the remote martial arts do'jo kind! Cool, huh? Like living in a top martial arts movie. Then, that place was attacked. They were trying to kidnap you again. Sheesh, being a member of the wealthiest family in the galaxy makes you such a target, huh? Oh, I forgot to mention... Asteroid Ceres is worth between 120 and 150 Trillion Dollars. So yeah, your family is the wealthiest in the galaxy. Lucky you! But unlucky, people do try to kidnap you all the time... like your mom. So, you grow up in space, tramp around on your uncle's starship, you go to college, military academy... learn to pilot star ships, how to design and build them too. Good in sports- like "the Athlete of the Millenium" of zero-gravity basketball good. Spend a few years in military service aboard starships. A few adventures, a few buddies, and a few ladies.... Now that's done, you are free to start your adult career, start your life. You can be and do anything you imagine, desire, and work hard towards achieving. But, you are stuck at one point in your life: still no mom. What? Nothing? Still no clues? What are you going to do? Better question: You're trained like a martial arts star, equipped like a special agent, tall, rugged, and handsome like an iconic cowboy... What do you think THAT guy's gonna do? Go find mom, right? No question! Here you go, it's easy in 2525. Take your boarding pass to the spaceport. Telepod pops you up to the space station, float into your luxury starship and cruise away from Earth. Set course for the wormhole station, and through there, anywhere. Let's journey through a wormhole to a star on the outer rim of the galaxy, out there beyond the Carina Arm, to the Periphery of the Milky Way. You are going to the luxury penthouse suite of a city on a "Super-Earth" planet. Remember back on Earth, the Burj Khalifa hyper tower in Dubai, at 2700 feet tall it's a half a mile up, almost one kilometer! This is dwarfed by, The Arcology, an entire self-contained city for one million people, a stretched glass pyramid 12 kilometers tall. And you are standing there at 10 km high in a penthouse suite. From up here you can see the curvature of the world! You look out the crysteel window and see four more Arcology towers arranged around the city center. Oh, and the pirates coming. Sorry, I forgot to mention them again, didn't I?

Winner of the 2014 Pura Belpré Author Award In Meg Medina's compelling new novel, a Latina teen is targeted by a bully at her new school and must discover resources she never knew she had. One morning before school, some girl tells Piddy Sanchez that Yaqui Delgado hates her and wants to kick her ass. Piddy doesn't even know who Yaqui is, never mind what she's done to piss her off. Word is that Yaqui thinks Piddy is stuck-up, shakes her stuff when she walks, and isn't Latin enough with her white skin, good grades, and no accent. And Yaqui isn't kidding around, so Piddy better watch her back. At first Piddy is more concerned with trying to find out more about the father she's never met and how to balance honors courses with her weekend job at the neighborhood hair salon. But as the harassment escalates, avoiding Yaqui and her gang starts to take over Piddy's life. Is there any way for Piddy to survive without closing herself off or running away? In an all-too-realistic novel, Meg Medina portrays a sympathetic heroine who is forced to decide who she really is.

In one of the most unorthodox yet necessary programming books ever to appear, Daniel Kohanski, a seasoned programmer and systems consultant, delves into the foundational concepts and basic mechanics of computers and computer programming. Rather than writing yet another book that teaches readers how to write code, Kohanski penetrates more deeply into the nature of programming itself. By exploring what programming is all about, The Philosophical Programmer: Reflections on the Moth in the Machine offers an introduction for the computer neophyte as well as an opportunity for experienced programmers to understand better the fundamental nature of their craft.
